

INTRODUCTION TO SUBSEA FACILITIES

An Awareness Course for Maintenance and Support Teams

ABERDEEN

PROGRAMME AND REGISTRATION FORM

This is an intensive one-day course and is specifically designed for all offshore topsides maintenance operatives and other support staff who deal with the operation and maintenance of subsea plant. It also offers the chance for anyone new to or already within the subsea sector the opportunity to partake in a short course to raise their awareness of the subsea environment and its equipment needs.

The seminar is run by experienced personnel from the subsea sector. It will be held in a classroom environment, with the sessions being interactive, with every opportunity to ask questions and discuss what has been learnt.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Offshore topsides maintenance operatives
- Onshore operations and maintenance support staff
- Operator Asset Team members and clients
- Subsea equipment and service contract suppliers
- New entrants to the subsea industry
- Refresher candidates

Introduction to Subsea Facilities

PROGRAMME

Subsea production is not a new concept; however, advances in subsea technologies continue to enhance the economic development of offshore exploration discoveries in all water depths. Crucial to the economic success of such developments is the need to understand the consequences of one's actions.

This workshop is aimed at creating an awareness of the applications of subsea equipment and plant, the vulnerabilities to which it is susceptible, the requirements to continuously inspect, maintain and repair, and the consequences of equipment downtime and lost production.
